OUT OF THE GATE

- The Gatemen opened their 2009 season with a 5-4 win over division rival Cotuit. LHP Eric Pfisterer threw five innings of no-hit ball to earn the win. The lefty also struck out ten and walked only two. RHP Nick Pepitone came in to pitch the eighth and ninth innings and garnered the save.
- 2B Ryan Pineda began the season in fine fashion at the plate, going 3-4 while scoring a run.
- Wareham begins the season missing 8 players due to the College World Series. The Gatemen are without RHP Brandon Workman, RHP Taylor Jungmann, RHP Cole Green, C Jordan Swagerty, 3B Zach Wilson, OF Connor Rowe, OF Jarrod McKinney, and OF/RHP Brett Eibner. Workman, Jungmann, Green and Rowe play for Texas. Swagerty and Wilson represent Arizona State. McKinney and Eibner shoot for the title with Arkansas.
- The Gatemen will put a very experienced team on Spillane Field the entire season. RHP Brandon Workman, RHP Josh Slaats, LHP Zach Brewster, C Cole Leonida, SS Shea Vucinich, 2B Ryan Pineda, SS/1B Jake Lemmerman, OF Connor Rowe, and OF/RHP Brett Eibner all played for Wareham in 2008.
